

STATE OF ARKANSAS
Tax Exemption Certificate
For Military Spouse

Military spouses may use Form AR-MS to claim exemption from Arkansas income tax. The Military Spouses Residency Relief Act of 2009 amends the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act of 2003 to allow servicemembers' spouses' income to be taxed in the state of domicile.

If a military spouse's employer withheld Arkansas tax from income and the conditions in the sections below are met, income earned in Arkansas is not taxable to Arkansas. Attach this completed certificate and the service members Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) and/or W-2 to Form AR1000NR. Please check the box on the AR1000NR and complete the return with no income in the Arkansas column.
