Injured Spouse Claim and Allocation

FORM 505
Revised 2022

Name(s) shown on return	Your Social Security Number
-------------------------	-----------------------------

Are You An Injured Spouse?

Is your share of the overpayment, shown on your joint return, being applied against your spouse's Oklahoma Tax Commission liability? Yes No

Note: Answer "No" if your overpayment is being applied against your spouse's debt with another state agency such as past due child support or spousal support payments; certain Federal debt such as student loans or amounts due the Internal Revenue Service; or county court debts.

If you answered No, STOP! Do not complete this form. You must claim your refund by contacting the agency to which your refund was applied. If the other agency requests you complete Form 505, mail this form to that agency and NOT to the Oklahoma Tax Commission.

If you answered Yes, you may file this form to claim your part of the refund if all three of the following apply:

- ✓ You are not required to pay your spouse's Oklahoma Tax Commission liability.
- ✓ You received and reported income (such as wages, taxable interest, etc.) on the joint return.
- ✓ You had Oklahoma income tax withheld or made estimated tax payments, or you claimed the sales tax relief credit or other refundable credit on the joint return.

If all three of the above apply and you want your share of the overpayment shown on the joint return refunded to you, complete this form. The Oklahoma Tax Commission will figure your part of the overpayment and send you any refund that is due. However, if you owe past-due child support or a debt to another state agency, part or all of your share of the overpayment may be applied to that debt. Please allow at least eight weeks for the processing of this claim.

When Do You File Form 505?

After you have been notified that your refund is going to be applied to a debt other than your own, file Form 505 and mail to: *

Oklahoma Tax Commission
