2020 Educational Opportunity Tax Credit Worksheet for Maine Resident & Part-year Resident Individuals - Instructions

This worksheet and the related instructions are for individual taxpayers who have made eligible education loan payments.

Employers eligible to claim the related credit must complete the Credit for Educational Opportunity Worksheet for Employers.

IMPORTANT: If your employer directly paid to the lender all of your education loan payments, you DO NOT QUALIFY for this credit. If your employer directly paid all of your education loan payments, do not complete or file this worksheet. If your employer directly paid part of your loan payments, you may qualify for a credit. If your employer directly paid part of your loan payments, you must complete and enclose with this Worksheet, the Educational Opportunity Tax Credit - Employer/Employee Affidavit available at www.maine.gov/revenue/tax-return-forms (click on Worksheets for Tax Credits).

The educational opportunity tax credit is a component of the Job Creation through Educational Opportunity program, which began in 2008. The purpose of the program is to provide an income tax credit for Maine resident taxpayers who are making eligible education loan payments on loans obtained to earn: an undergraduate degree (associate or bachelor's) from an accredited Maine college or university prior to 2016; or an associate or bachelor's degree after 2015 from an accredited Maine or non-Maine college or university; or, a graduate degree after 2015 from an accredited Maine college or university and who, after graduation, live, work and pay taxes in Maine.

Eligible education loan payments are payments made directly to the lender by a qualifying graduate for public and private education loans that are part of the financial aid package.

- Only eligible education loan payments made during the part of the tax year in which you were a resident of Maine working in Maine qualify for the credit. See the "Worked in Maine" note below.
- Payments in excess of the required loan payment are not eligible for the credit, except payments made while eligible loans are in forbearance or deferment status. See Maine Rule 812 at www.maine.gov/revenue/publications/rules for more information.
- Payments on a refinanced eligible education loan qualify for the credit as long as the refinanced loan remains separate from any other debt incurred, other than educational loans.

The monthly payment amount eligible for the credit is limited to an upper cap called the benchmark loan payment. For example, if you graduated in 2020, earned all credit hours for a bachelor's degree after 2007 and made monthly payments in 2020 of $380 for qualified loans, the amount you can use to calculate the credit is $367, the applicable monthly benchmark loan payment for individuals graduating in 2020 (see instructions on page 4 for line 3). Using this example, if you made regularly scheduled monthly payments of $380 through the entire year and worked in Maine, your credit would be $$367 \times 12 = $4,404$.

For tax year 2020, a qualifying graduate is one who:

- Obtained an associate or bachelor's degree after 2007 from an accredited Maine community college, college or university; or
- Obtained an associate or bachelor's degree after 2015 from a non-Maine accredited community college, college or university; or
- Obtained a graduate degree after 2015 from an accredited Maine college or university; and
- After graduation, is a Maine resident (as defined by Maine tax law in 36 M.R.S. § 5217-D(1)(H)) and during the tax year worked at least part-time (at least 16 hours/week) in Maine*, was deployed for military service in the United States Armed Forces, including the National Guard and the Reserves of the United States Armed Forces or was employed at least part-time on a vessel at sea.

NOTE: "Worked in Maine" includes an employee who has worked outside Maine for up to 3 months during the Maine residency period of the tax year. An employee who worked at least part-time in Maine for any part of a month is considered to have worked in Maine for that entire month.*

If both spouses are eligible, both may claim the credit on a married-joint return. The credit may not reduce your Maine income tax due to less than zero, except that the credit is refundable if your degree is an associate degree or if your bachelor's degree is a degree in science, technology, engineering or mathematics. Unused non-refundable credit amounts may be carried forward for up to ten years.

A self-employed person who is an eligible graduate may be eligible for the credit for educational opportunity for individuals. The self-employed person may also qualify for the credit for employers if the self-employed person had employees during the tax year. For more information on the employer credit, see the Credit for Educational Opportunity Worksheet for Employers.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Note that if you are claiming the credit for more than one degree you earned, you must complete a separate Educational Opportunity Tax Credit Worksheet for each degree. If consolidated, your loan amounts obtained for subsequent degrees earned must be prorated to reflect the ratio of additional credit hours necessary to earn the subsequent degree to the total number of credit hours required for the subsequent degree.

First, complete the Educational Opportunity Tax Credit - Loan Payment Schedule. (See page 2 of the Worksheet.)

Line 1. Enter the number of months* during the tax year in which you met all of the following:

- a) Were a resident of Maine;
- b) Worked in Maine (see "Worked in Maine" note on page 3) or were a Maine resident deployed for military service in the U.S. Armed Forces or were a Maine resident employed at least part-time on a vessel at sea; and
- c) Paid eligible education loans directly to the lender (during any part of the year).

*Count any part of a month as an entire month.

Example, if your tax year is the 2020 calendar year, you were a Maine resident for the entire year, you graduated in May 2020, you began making monthly eligible education loan payments beginning July 2020, and you started working in Maine on August 1, 2020, you would enter '5' on line 1. In this example, there were only five months during the year (August – December) that you met all of the requirements.

Individuals that did not make any eligible student loan payments during the tax year do not qualify for the credit.

Individuals who were unemployed during the entire Maine residency period do not qualify for the credit.

Line 2. Consolidated loans. You may include only loans obtained for courses required to earn the degree listed on the Educational Opportunity Tax Credit Worksheet, line H. If your educational loans for this degree are consolidated with other educational loans, complete lines 2a through 2c to calculate the ratio of loans eligible for the credit. If you earned another degree that qualifies for the credit, complete a separate worksheet to calculate the additional credit.

Line 3. In Column A, for each month, enter the appropriate monthly benchmark loan payment from the table below.

If you graduated in:	The benchmark loan payment is
	Associate degree	Bachelor's degree	Graduate degree
2008	*	*
2009	*	*
2010	$72.00	$343.00
2011	$68.00	$344.00
2012	$65.00	$342.00
2013	$65.00	$356.00
2014	$66.00	$363.00
2015	$70.00	$377.00
2016	$70.00	$373.00	$325.00
2017	$68.00	$364.00	$317.00
2018	$74.00	$377.00	$328.00
2019	$77.00	$367.00	$338.00
2020	$77.00	$367.00	$341.00

* If you graduated in 2008 or 2009, include a copy of a statement from your school's financial aid office stating the benchmark loan payment for the year in which you graduated.

In Column B, for each month, enter the monthly eligible education loan payment due for each month during the tax year, or that would have been due but for forbearance or deferment*, multiplied by the ratio on line 2c, if applicable. The loan payment due is most likely the amount on your monthly payment voucher or electronic bill. Enter the total monthly amount due, even if part of it was paid by someone else. Enter only the required amount due, excluding any accelerated payment.

* The amount considered due during forbearance or deferment is equal to the average student loan payment due during the months of the taxable year in which the loans were not in forbearance or deferment. If this amount cannot be determined, use the benchmark loan payment amount.

In Column C, for each month during which you made a payment on an eligible education loan, enter the amount you paid during the tax year multiplied by the ratio on line 2c, if applicable. Do not include amounts paid by someone else.

Example: You obtained a bachelor's degree in 2019 and your eligible monthly loan amount due is $350 for each month during 2020. Based on the chart above, your monthly benchmark loan payment is $367. From January through March you paid $350 each month. During April, you decided to pay the amount due for the remainder of the year ($3,150, $350 x 9). Column A, enter $367 in each row a through l; Column B, enter $350 in each row a through l; and Column C, enter $350 in each row a, b, and c (January, February, and March) and enter $3,150 in row d (April).

Line 7. Add line 5b and line 6. The credit on this line is not refundable; however, you may carryforward unused portions of the tax credit for up to 10 years from the tax year the credit amount was generated.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION. In the first year a taxpayer claims the credit, MRS requires the following documents be included with your Maine individual income tax return (Form 1040ME) and completed Educational Opportunity Tax Credit Worksheet:

- A complete copy of the college transcript that lists the name of the degree obtained, classes completed and when completed;
- Documentation of the educational loans that qualify for the credit, including the monthly student loan payment required to be made; and,
- The actual monthly student loan payment amounts paid during the tax year.

Once these facts are supported in the first year, documentation on these items will generally not again be required by MRS in future years. However, documentation may be requested after the first year related to actual loan payments made during the year and on employment status.
