Who Must File Estimated Payments

Fiduciaries of an estate or trust (resident or nonresident), generally must pay estimated income tax payments if the estate or trust is expected to owe more than $500 after subtracting withholding and credits.

Composite filers are required to pay estimated payments for all participants whose share of annual income tax liability is expected to exceed $500 after personal exemption and credits.

Fiduciary Filers

If the estate or trust owes more than $500, estimated payments may not have to be made if the estate or trust expects the 2023 withholding to be at least:

- 90 percent of the total tax for 2023, OR
- 100 percent of the total tax shown on the 2022 return, OR
- 110 percent of the total 2022 tax if the estate's or trust's taxable income for 2022 is more than $150,000. To figure the estate or trust's federal taxable income, see the instructions for line 23 of the U.S. Form 1041.

A financial institution that submits estimated payments through the Federal Tax Deposit System on magnetic tape and acts as a fiduciary for 200 or more trusts must submit Michigan estimated payments on magnetic tape.

An institution acting as fiduciary for more than 49 and less than 200 trusts may make an irrevocable agreement to file magnetically.

Exceptions:

- Generally, no estimated tax is due if the estate or trust is due a refund or has a balance due of $500 or less.
- There is no estimated tax due on an estate or a trust that had no tax liability for the full 12 months preceding the tax year.
- Estimated payments are not required from a decedent's estate for any tax year ending before the date that is 2 years after the decedent's death.

Composite Filers

Flow-through entities (FTE) who file a Michigan Composite Individual Income Tax Return (Form 807) must pay estimated payments on behalf of all participants whose share of annual income tax liability is expected to exceed $500 after personal exemption and credits. For each quarter, compute the combined quarterly estimated payment for all participants and report on one Form MI-1041ES. Form MI-1041ES must be completed with the name and FEIN of the FTE who will claim the estimated payments on the composite return. Estimated payments should only be remitted for participants of a composite return.
