Line 4 Retirement Deduction:

An individual may deduct up to $3,000 of qualified retirement income, and, beginning in the tax year in which the individual reaches age 65, up to $10,000 of qualified retirement income.

A surviving spouse receiving qualified retirement income attributable to a deceased spouse may deduct up to $3,000 or $10,000, whichever would have applied, based on age, had the deceased spouse lived. The surviving spouse retirement deduction is in addition to the individual retirement deduction from his or her own plan.

The retirement deduction can be claimed here to the extent it is not claimed on SC1040 or Schedule NR. If an age-65-and-older deduction has been claimed on SC1040 or Schedule NR, do not include any individual retirement deduction on line 4.

See SC1040 instructions for additional information.

Line 5 Age-65-and-older deduction:

Beginning in the tax year in which a resident reaches age 65, a deduction of $15,000 can be claimed against any South Carolina income. However, it is reduced by the amount of any individual retirement deduction. The age-65-and-older deduction is not reduced by any surviving spouse retirement deduction.

The age 65-and-older deduction can be claimed on line 5 to the extent it is not claimed on SC1040 or Schedule NR.

See SC1040 instructions for additional information.

It is mandatory that you provide your social security number on this tax form. 42 U.S.C 405(c)(2)(C)(i) permits a state to use an individual's social security number as means of identification in administration of any tax. SC Regulation 117-201 mandates that any person required to make a return to the SC Department of Revenue shall provide identifying numbers, as prescribed, for securing proper identification. Your social security number is used for identification purposes.

*KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS****

TWO WAGE EARNER CREDIT WHEN BOTH SPOUSES WORK
Your filing status must be married filing jointly to claim this credit.

Line 12 TWO WAGE EARNER CREDIT (MARRIED COUPLE)

This credit can only be claimed by a married couple filing jointly when both spouses have earned income taxed to South Carolina. This credit is not allowed on returns with a filing status of single, married filing separately or head of household. Do not include gambling or bingo winnings reported on federal form W-2G.

Example - You earned a salary taxed to South Carolina of $20,000. Your spouse earned $17,000 taxed to South Carolina and had an IRA deduction taxed to South Carolina of $1,000. Your SC qualified earned income is $20,000 and your spouse's is $16,000 ($17,000 minus $1,000). Because your spouse's qualified earned income is less than yours, the credit is based on your spouse's income. Therefore, the credit is $112 ($16,000 x .007).

Compute your earned income separately for yourself and your spouse. South Carolina earned income is generally income you receive for services you provide. It includes wages, salaries, tips, commissions and sub-pay. It also includes income earned from self-employment, business income or loss, partnership income or loss, farm income or loss and any other earned income taxed to South Carolina. Earned income does not include gambling or bingo winnings, interest, dividends, Social Security benefits, IRA distribution, unemployment compensation, deferred compensation or non-taxable income. It also does not include any amount your spouse paid you.

South Carolina qualified earned income. This is the amount on which the credit is based. Compute it by subtracting certain adjustments from South Carolina earned income. The adjustments are:

- Deductible part of self-employment tax
- Self-employed SEP, simple, and qualified plans
- Self-employed health insurance deduction
- IRA deduction
- Repayment of sub-pay

4. Add the adjustment amounts entered on federal Form 1040. If filing South Carolina Schedule NR, enter amounts from lines 21, 22, 23, 26 and any repayment of supplemental unemployment benefits (sub-pay) allocable to South Carolina income.	2,046	0
5. Subtract line 4 from line 3. This is your qualified earned income taxed to South Carolina. If the amount in column (a) or (b) is zero (-0-) or less, stop here. You may not take this credit.	12,954	5,000

Compute the credit.
